

Demanding justice beyond rhetoric

Time to overcome contradictions and hypocrisy in the COVID-19 crisis

Global Civil Society Report on the 2030 Agenda

Table of Contents

Preface
1	Diverging recovery – deepening inequalities	Barbara Adams and Jens Martens, Global Policy Forum
Special contributions
1.1	Box: Skyrocketing profits of vaccine producers
1.2	The struggle for the TRIPS waiver	K.M. Gopakumar, Third World Network
1.3	COVAX: Risks and side effects of multi-stakeholder governance	Harris Gleckman, Associate, Transnational Institute (TNI)
1.4	The WHO pandemic treaty proposal: responding to needs or playing COVID geopolitics?	Nicoletta Dentico, Society for International Development (SID)
1.5	Challenging decades of privatization and de-funding of public services	Daria Cibrario, Public Services International (PSI)
1.6	IMF Special Drawing Rights – a historic financial boost to counter the COVID-19 crisis?	Bodo Ellmers, Global Policy Forum
1.7	Large corporations cash in on COVID-19 recovery	Matti Kohonen, Financial Transparency Coalition
1.8	What have we learned about gender equality during the pandemic?	Vanita Nayak Mukherjee and Shree Baphna, DAWN
1.9	The UN Food Systems Summit – the wrong way to respond to the global food crisis	Magdalena Ackermann, SID / Charlotte Dreger, FIAN
1.10	Recovery in education: The imperative to support and invest in the education workforce	David Edwards, General Secretary, Education International

2	Exacerbated crises in many countries	Roberto Bissio, Social Watch
Special contributions
2.1	Citizens Monitoring COVID-19 Response Programmes: The Philippine experience	Social Watch Philippines
2.2	Box: Illicit financial flows from Bangladesh
2.3	Lebanon's multiple crises	ANND
2.4	Lessons from Colombia: To address the causes of social unrest, be serious about progressive tax reforms	Sergio Chaparro, Center for Economic and Social Rights (CESR)
2.5	Time for feminist transformative policies: Towards a national care system in Argentina	Corina Rodriguez Enriquez, DAWN
2.6	Vulnerabilities and policy priorities for South Africa's COVID-19 third wave	Institute for Economic Justice (IEJ)
3	Time for transformative policies at all levels
	Introduction
	Box: 5 steps to end 'vaccine apartheid'	People's Vaccine Alliance
	A rights-based economy: In critical times, a roadmap for action	Kate Donald, Center for Economic and Social Rights (CESR)
	Now is the time to reclaim public services	Daria Cibrario, Public Services International (PSI)
	Steps to prevent a global debt and austerity pandemic	Isabel Ortiz, Global Social Justice, and Matthew Cummins, senior economist		